Cσnductivity — Launch Operations Pack

23 October 2026 · Covers §18 release criteria 3, 5–7 and 10, and the "Marketing launch campaigns" work package

> Proposed for management approval. Response times, cadence and channels below are recommended starting points, not decisions already made. Adjust them, then share with the team.

Part A — Lead-response process

Every form on the site creates a lead with a reference number (e.g. CND-MVJGP25Z), routed to one team. The visitor sees the reference immediately and, once email is connected, receives a confirmation.

Form	Owning team	First human reply	Next step
Employer consultation / diagnostic	Business Development	Within 1 business day	Qualify; book a discovery call; move deal to Qualified Lead or Closed lost
Talent registration	Talent Operations	Within 3 business days	Review career stage; suggest one next step (counselling, assessment, program); move to Initial Profile when complete
Partnership proposal	Partnerships	Within 3 business days	Assess fit; propose an initial meeting
Contact page	Marketing	Within 2 business days	Answer, or forward to the right team
Newsletter sign-up	Marketing	Automatic welcome	Add to the chosen segment
Preferences / data request	Data Protection owner	Acknowledge within 3 business days	Verify identity by email; complete within the period set by legal review

Routine

- Daily: each owner checks their team inbox and CRM queue; no lead left without a reply past its target.
- Weekly (Monday, 30 min): pipeline review: update stages and "next action" dates; chase anything overdue.
- Monthly: KPI review using the two CRM dashboards and GA4 (§17).
- Escalation: any lead unanswered one business day past its target goes to the team manager.
- Never: share a candidate profile with an employer without the candidate's recorded permission (§16).

Part B — Publishing process

Step	Who	What
1. Plan	Marketing	Quarterly calendar drawn from the four editorial themes (§11); alternate employer and talent topics
2. Draft	Subject expert + Marketing	Original insight from Conductivity's own work; practical, evidence-based; ends with a next step (diagnostic, readiness, partnership)
3. Review	Expert reviewer	Accuracy; no unverified claims, statistics, client names or logos without approval
4. Approve and publish	Marketing lead	Publish to Insights in the right theme; check title and description
5. Distribute	Marketing	Newsletter to the matching segment; LinkedIn post with a tracked link (Part C)
6. Maintain	Marketing / Talent Ops	Weekly: remove closed opportunities. Quarterly: update or retire outdated articles

Suggested cadence for the first 6 months: 2 articles a month, 1 newsletter a month per segment, 1 case study a quarter once approved.
