Cσnductivity Website — §7 Employer Experience

Checklist · updated 22 October 2026 · Page: For Employers (localhost:3000/employers)

7.1 Employer landing page

	Item	Where it is
✓	Headline "Your Business Needs More Than Candidates. It Needs a Reliable Talent Pipeline." and intro text	Top red banner
✓	Six question-and-answer cards: the client question first (blue), then the solution and its services (white): Talent Intelligence, Talent Acquisition, Talent Development, HR & OD Advisory, Global Talent Services, Talent Continuity	"Start with the question your business is asking"
✓	Inquiry form: name, organization, designation, work email, phone, industry, country, talent requirement, number of positions, timeline, additional context, consent	Consultation form
✗	Submissions go into the sales CRM with an owner and follow-up status	Not connected yet (see note)

7.2 Talent Pipeline Diagnostic

	Item	Where it is
✓	Named, consultant-led offering: "The Talent Pipeline Diagnostic", with its own button	Diagnostic section
✓	All seven areas it examines: workforce needs, capability gaps, role clarity, talent availability, internal development, recruitment and retention, priority actions	Diagnostic section
✓	Diagnostic option in the inquiry form	Consultation form ("What would you like to discuss?")
✓	Diagnostic sub-page	Talent Pipeline Development

Open items for the team: (1) choose a CRM or email service so form submissions are captured with an owner and follow-up status; (2) confirm the Diagnostic's scope, duration and pricing (a placeholder box on the page marks this).
